CLAY CITY, KY., THURSDAY, AUGUST 11, 1910.

NO. 32.

How to Judge

About as good way to study human nature is when you are driving on the public road. If a man is willing to observe the laws and the courtesies of the road, he will only give his share of it when meeting another, and shows he is willing to do the gentlemanly thing about it. But when you meet one who takes every advantage of those he meets, and holds the road for his own selfish self, often to the great discomfort of those he meets, or will not allow them to pass, we are almost sure to think of pork in connection with such drivers of teams.

A good story is told of a gentleman who once met a character described above and was forced into a very deep mud hole with a load while the other fellow with empty wagon took all of the good road. The fellow looked down upon the gentleman and said, "I never turn out for fools." To this the gentleman replied, "I always do."

It probably will be the middle of October, according to officials, before the true number of people in the United States will be revealed by the official count of the thirteenth census. Officials say the figures will place the population at about ninety million.

John W. Williams, of Sardis, Miss., remits us for one year's subscription. Mr. Williams is very kindly remembered by many Clay City friends who are his well wishers.

We Do Not Recommend

Sutherland's Eagle Eye Save for anything but the eyes. It is a speedy and harmless cure for granulated lids, scrofulous sore eyes, styes, weak eyes and dimness of vision. Sold everywhere 25c.

Boys' Worst Habit.

The worst habit that boys can fall into is that of loafing around on the streets at night. It is then they cast their lot in slippery places when at any moment they are likely to fall from grace. All good and noble lessons taught them by their mothers are there counteracted and nullified. They learn nothing that is good—but everything bad. The boys who spent their evenings in the sacred precincts of home, with good books for their companions are the future hope of this republic; they will fill our legislative and congressional halls, and sit in judgment upon men and measures, while the boys who run the streets will fill our penitentiaries, almshouses and lunatic asylums. Parents who are responsible for these broken laws of decency will have broken hearts and bowed down heads in the awakening years that will inevitably follow.

Do We Want the Bridges.

If the people of Clay City and Powell county want to build the three bridges outlined let them speak out and say so, say how much money they are in for each one. Its money that talks. Some have done this. As much as $500 have this way been subscribed for the two Clay City bridges, and no paper has been presented. The county and city are neither able to build these bridges and will be in but little condition for several years to come. The thing of a city or county laying by cash from the regular revenue is something very rare and Powell county is no exception, neither is Clay City. The Times is for all three bridges all at once and think every body should work to this end and begin now by dropping into this office and say how much you are in on the Clay City bridges.

Council Meeting.

The city Council met in regular session Friday night and besides the regular routine of business took up the bridge proposition which was discussed by both the members of the board and some of the citizens of the town who were present. J. B. Eaton and J. E. Burgher were appointed a committee to meet the Powell Fiscal Court and make the proper requisition upon that body for the building of two bridges across the river leading out from this city in which the city proposes to pay half the expense. It is understood that the citizens by private subscription make up half the city's part. Every member of the board was in favor of the bridge proposition and every citizen at the meeting seemed inclined the same. If we don't get these bridges the fault will lie with the county, and from what we learn by talking to the members of the Fiscal Court the county will certainly do its part.

Death of Mrs. Sam Ringo.

Mrs. Sam C. Ringo died Wednesday, August 3rd after a brief illness, though she had been in failing health for some time. Burial Thursday at the Eaton cemetery, short services being conducted at the grave by Elder A. Easter. Besides her husband Mrs. Ringo is survived by five children. Before marriage she was a Miss Everman. She leaves many friends besides relatives who extend sincerest sympathy to the remaining family.

Don't Pass the Straight Trees.

If we look only for crooked trees in the timber, we will find plenty of them; but we will pass by many straight, beautiful trees and never notice them. So, too, if we look only for blemishes in the character of others, we will find them; but we may not notice the many good qualities that they may possess.

One extreme generally follows another, thus it was commonly expected to have a drouth this fall to offset the wet weather this spring, and we are having it just now, though rain may fall in a few days and counterbalance the injury to corn and grass. Stock water is yet plentiful.

Despite the injurious offsets to growing crops the Department of Agriculture predicts that there will be 80 million more bushels of corn raised this year than last and it says the wheat crop will also be much larger notwithstanding the severe drouth in the Northwest.

After August 15th Mr. Wm. Johnson will have charge of the Central Hotel. Mr. Johnson was manager of this hotel two years ago and made a success of the business, and we bespeak for him the same success again.

D. R. Daniel was taken sick in Winchester the last of the week, but was able to return home where he has since been confined to his home. His physician thinks he will soon be able to be on the street again.

McCreary for Governor.

Senator James B. McCreary who has been urged to make the race for Governor of Kentucky has been pressed into the race after numerous calls from members of his party in all parts of the State. Below follows his announcement:

To the Democrats of Kentucky: I have received so many letters requesting me to announce that I am a candidate for Governor and so many Democrats have in person said to me that if I am nominated I will have the unanimous support of the Democrats of Kentucky, and such a large number of newspapers have published editorials suggesting and endorsing me as a proper candidate for Governor that I have decided to announce that I am a candidate for Governor subject to the action of the Democratic party.

"I believe the party which has honored me so often and to which I have belonged all my life and whose principles I have ever advocated and upheld is entitled to my best services whenever needed or demanded. I have always been in favor of the straight, pure Democracy, law and order, honesty and economy in public administration and educational advancement, and my record and my efforts to serve the people faithfully and efficiently I hope and believe are well known to the people of Kentucky. At the proper time I shall be pleased to make speeches in behalf of Democratic principles and Democratic Government and Democratic victory in every part of the State and in county if desired, and I will be very grateful for the support of my brother Democrats."

"JAMES B. McCREARY."

County Convention.

The Democrats of Powell county which met in mass convention at Stanton Saturday elected M. A. Phillips Chairman and V. B. Atkinson Secretary. The convention instructed for A. Floyd Byrd, of Clark county for Congress. M. A. Phillips, Luther Stephens, George Stephens and Charlie Crow were appointed delegates and attended the district convention at Mt. Sterling Tuesday.

William J. Gaynor, Mayor of New York City, was seriously wounded in the head by a bullet from the pistol of James G. Gallagher, a discharged city employe, who was immediately arrested and held without bail to await the result of the injuries inflicted.

The first home-grown peaches to appear on this market came in yesterday and found ready sale at $1.25 per bushel. The peaches offered were not a superior grade either.

At the sale of G. W. Lyle, Sr., deceased on Hardwick's Creek articles sold well. The sale was largely attended, and the bidding was spirited.

It is the duty of the law to punish the man who is not now merciful to his beast.

Byrd Nominated.

A. Floyd Byrd, of Winchester, was nominated for Congress at the Tenth District Democratic Convention in Mt. Sterling Tuesday. The nomination was made by acclamation. Mr. Byrd's name was placed before the convention by John M. Stevenson, of Clark county, with seconding speeches from various counties. He accepted the nomination in a strong address, pledging himself to use his best efforts to win and predicted that with good work the Tenth district would be redeemed.

Before the convention brief addresses were made by Senator McCreary, Congressman Johnson, Mayor Head and Congressman Ollie James. Senator McCreary predicted the election of Democratic Congressman as did also Mr. James.

Senator McCreary announced himself for Judson Harmon, of Ohio, as the nominee for President and closed with the brief announcement of his candidacy for Governor.

Mayor Head and Congressman Johnson made brief announcements of their candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Governor.

Robert Friend, of Estill county, was chosen as temporary chairman and Garrett Williams, of Breathitt, as temporary secretary. The organization committee reported the selection of M. M. Redwine, of Elliott county, as permanent chairman and he was chosen by acclamation.

The nominee, Mr. Byrd is 46 years old and a native of Wolfe county, where he received a common school education and served as Superintendent of Schools. He was elected Commonwealth's Attorney in the 23rd district and in this capacity gained a wide reputation as a lawyer in prosecuting the Breathitt county feud cases. He, personally, has a strong following in the mountains.

One Great Trust.

Staples were long ago monopolized in their original supply. Transportation, coal, oil, artificial light and heat, sugar, flour (to a great extent), woolens, cottons, rubber, leather, paper, matchless, iron and steel, all controlled by trusts. The substance of the new movement is that these and all other things that men must have are to be supplied to him directly by similar agencies, to be gradually consolidated as the process continues.

Of all this no doubt can be left in the observant mind.

First the small combination, then the larger; then all to find their way into a comparatively few gigantic organizations such as those we now directed by the by the Morgan interests or the Standard Oil Company or similar groups. At no time a halt in the process nor a backward turn of evolution, but one continued advance from the day of the first partnership to the day of the colossal trust.

Is it any wonder that these combinations that now so largely represent Business in its totality—represent, that is, the supplying of man's necessities—have become the Power Behind the Republic against which blind men thunder in vain?

Promisory John Langley was in town a short while this week. When asked about his turnpikes, he said he was still onto his job and was in time going to get them for us. In fact, he said he had ordered a crusher to the upper part of the district to begin work. We guess that is Peter Cave precinct where he said he wanted to be buried in his speech accepting the nomination at Mt. Sterling, because there was not a Democrat in that precinct. John seemeth to not like Democrats and in this there is no love lost.

Pull together, brethren. We are all here for the same purpose. Then live and let live. The best way to build up a town is for each and every man to pull together and not strive to rend and tear down. All the residents of a town are partners, not opponents. In all likelihood the more business done by your rival the more you will do. Every merchant who treats his customers honestly and fairly will get his share and the more business that can be secured by united effort, the better it will be for all.

Senator James B. McCreary seems to be the harmony candidate for Governor of Kentucky. The Senator suits the Times all right, and we believe this end of the State generally should uphold his hands. His parents lived in Estill county when the Senator was born, not more than ten miles from this city, and this within itself is enough to make us support him from self pride.

Thus is just the right size town to settle down in and enjoy life. Everything for the comfort of life can be bought here and $10 will go as far as $25 will in the large cities. When you want to leave the farm, come to our town and build a nice comfortable home and be among the best people in the world.

Our Candidate.

The Honorable A. Floyd Byrd, the Democratic nominee for Congress, is, in our opinion, one of the strongest men in the district. He will conduct his campaign upon principle and honor. He will meet the public on the former, tell them what he and his party stand for. He don't have to beat the brush because he will make an honest campaign. He will not make promiscuous promises because he knows he cannot fill them. He will not promise us turnpikes, bridges and confederate veterans pensions, because he knows "Uncle Sam" doesn't spend his money that way. He wants no votes under false pretense, but wants all that he can honestly merit, and the Times thinks that would be all of them though we don't, of course, expect that. A majority of one thousand will do, if they don't contest and throw him out like they did Joe Kendall several years ago, and we don't think that will work this time for the House will be Democratic this fall, we confidently expect, and a contest would be useless.

John W. Langley, of Washington, D. C.

W. T. Stafford, Independent Republican candidate for Congress in this district was here Thursday. He says that when the recent census was taken he was not counted at his old Langley home in Kentucky, but in Washington. If he lives in Washington he is not eligible to a seat in Congress from Kentucky. It is not essential that a man shall live in the district which he represents, but he must live in the State.—Winchester Democrat.

We owe it to the community in which we live to do everything we can in every way possible that will be to its advantage. Our neighbor's prosperity means a great deal more to us than someone's who live elsewhere. We should bear this in mind in buying our goods. We can afford to pay our home man a firm price for his wares rather than send our money away, knowing as we do that every dollar our own citizen makes will help in sustaining our schools, churches and public institutions. It pays richly to patronize home industry.

Colonel Roosevelt wants to write some articles for the Clay City Times, but we think our readers can hear from the Colonel as often as they want to without burdening them with a column a week from the African hunter.

Next to the wife beater comes the horse beater and it is to be regretted we have one or two in this community. A horse is the most noble and faithful of animals and the man who would abuse his horse has something lacking in his manhood.

Staggers Skeptics. That a clean, nice, fragrant compound like Bucklen's Arnica Salve will instantly relieve a bad burn, cut, scald, wound or piles, staggers skeptics. Externally:—Cures sore breasts, corns, bunions, toothache, neuralgia, and all pains. Sold everywhere. It is antiseptic.

The Boy and the College. Colleges are all right and a good thing for the country, but the Times has observed one thing, in nine cases out of ten you can take a boy who has been reared in the country, raised to hard farm work, you can give him a thorough collegiate education and if he has not the natural talent for some profession of business which does not require hard work, he will starve before he will go back to the farm and work. Thus in some few instances the college goes wrong. Study the boy well, boy well before you start him to college. Generally if the lad wants to go to school and has done well in his lower grades, and shows an adaptability to business he should go to college, otherwise he should go to work.

We Guarantee Every Box. of Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve to do what we claim. Try it for ulcers, boils, running sores, tetter, ringworm, eczema, salt rheum, fever sores, cuts, bruises, pimples, black heads, chaps, felons, burns or any skin disease. 25c a box.

Vital Washington News.

All over the land the regular Republican candidate for Congress are preparing to ask for election or re-election on the record of President Taft and the last Congress.

Aside from the tariff revision, with which the public is already familiar, the predominating features of the platform on which the standpatters will make their final desperate stand are the postal bank bill and the so-called railroad regulation bill.

The railroad bill as passed was better than existing law, improvements having been forced by Democrats and Insurgents. The original draft was one of the most vicious pieces of legislation proposed in Congress in years. President Taft sent this bill to Congress with his personal indorsement and asked that it be passed without amendment.

It provided for a Commerce Court which would have destroyed the usefulness of the Interstate Commerce Commission, and made appeal to the higher tribunals impossible.

It took the railroads from under the anti-trust law, and would have permitted them to make what rates they pleased without any effective check.

It legalized existing mergers between existing lines; it contained a joke provision to regulate the issuing of railroad securities.

The Democrats and Insurgents forced some improvements, but were prevented by administration influences from putting in provisions which would have been of real value to the people, such as physical valuation of the roads as a basis of rate regulation.

Such was the railroad bill that would have become law had President Taft had his way.

Congress passed the kind of postal savings bank bill that Mr. Taft wanted. The effect will be, it is thought by those who have given study to the act as passed, to drain local communities of the money deposited in postal savings banks. Had the Democrats and Insurgents had their way, a postal bank bill such as was desired by the people would have been passed. But though the influence of the administration, Aldrich was able to thwart the will give Wall Street the control of the people's money as never before.

Still another feature of the Taft record is the tariff commission law, also a gold brick. It creates a commission without powers, and gives the special interests $250,000 of the people's money to carry on the campaign against honest revision of the tariff on the basis of equalization of the cost of production at home and abroad.

Ex-Forester Gifford Pinchot has ideas on other things besides conservation. At a dinner given recently he declared that the nation had lost confidence in Congress because it represented special interests rather than the people. Continuing, he said:

"And of this there could be no better illustration than the tariff. The tariff, under the policy of protection, was originally a means to raise the rate of wages. It has been made a tool to increase the cost of living.

"The cotton cloth schedule was increased in the face of the uncontradicted public testimony of the manufacturers themselves that it ought to remain unchanged.

"The steel interests by a trick secured an indefensible increase in the tariff on structural steel.

"The sugar trust stole from the government like a petty thief, yet Congress, by means of a dishonest schedule, continues to protect it in bleeding the public." (Republican papers, please copy.)

Representative Charles A. Littlefield of Maine, now admits that the plank in the last Republican National platform regarding injunctions was put there to placate the labor leaders and with no intention of its being carried out. He carries his frankness to an even greater extent and says the plank is "perfectly non-committal" and means nothing, being simply a dishonest trick to lure the unwary workingman and deluge him with the belief that the Republican party was his friend. If the truth was told, it would no doubt reveal that the tariff revision plank was another dishonest plank, never intended of fulfillment, and that the whole platform was a tissue of falsehood and false pretense.

The bill providing publicity for campaign expenditures and contributions passed at the last session and signed by President Taft, is not what the people have for years been demanding.

The House provided for publicity before election, but the Senate refused to pass such a measure and as a result of a conference publicity will not be made until after the elections have taken place.

What's the use of publicity after an election, when what has been done cannot be undone?

Publicity before an election would seem to be the only kind of publicity worth anything, for then the voters would be given timely notice as to which party and candidates were of, by and for the trusts, and which were of,

for and by the people.

The recent attempt to corrupt Senator Tom Gore of Oklahoma was accompanied by features most distressing to the blind statesman. Gore has felt the sting of poverty in its bitterest forms. Even now he has nothing but his salary. The person who he says offered him $25,000 to change his position on the Indian legislation was a personal friend of long standing. This man knew Gore had often suffered from sheer want. But Gore was not for sale.

Some Clay City people should learn these hot days that it really is important to keep cool, and just as important to keep your temper as it is to keep cool.

Aviators and automobilists are about the same. They break the record today and somebody's neck tomorrow. Clay City can give thanks she has neither.

There are some knotty problems that will have to remain unsolved until the hot wave passes.

NEW IDEA MANURE SPREADER

FARMERS, ATTENTION!

This Manure Spreader is different from all others. Do not buy without first investigating the merits of the same. The exclusive features not found on other machines:

Drawn with coupling pole; without a clutch or cog wheel. Can be heaped in loading, the same as a farm wagon. Guaranteed to pulverize all manure (notice the three chances).

This machine is built on a common sense principle of a farm wagon,—hence is the simplest, most durable, tightest draft, lowest down (hence easy to load into) spreader on the market. Backed by ten years' experience, not an experiment. Ask for catalogue X.
